ALL IDEAL PARK FAVORITES FAIL.

It was dreary Monday at Ideal Park. The track, while not muddy, was sticky and deceptive. It was one of the days that the ring likes. As not a single favorite scored the same ring laid up an addition to its store for the winter.

California's easy win in fast time was the racing feature, and Terra Archer's win by a narrow margin at 40 to 1, the usual sensation.

California was in the third race, a three-quarter condition dash, against Serena and Logan. Clay rode her and when Starter Dwyer sent them away California was well in her stride. On the back stretch the filly opened up a big gap and nothing ever got within striking distance.

Terra Archer's win was lucky and sensational. He was off in the rear division and never improved his position until the stretch was reached, where J. Webber found an opening on the rail, and getting through without interference, stole a march on Dorsey, and before the latter knew what had happened, the wire was reached and he was second.

Tonica won the first race in a false way, and Why galloped home with the youngster four and one half furlong dash, and Marie Woodlands at a liberal price won her race.

Beginning tomorrow trains will run to the track as follows: 11:40, 12:15, 12:30, 12:45 and 1 o'clock. Returning at 4:30 and immediately after the races.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Starter Pettingill has succeeded Frank Clark as the Jockey Club starter.

Hinde & Baker of the Millbrook Stud, have bought old Charade for a sire.

Old Fakir threatens to turn out an excellent jumper. He fences cleverly and kindly.

W. H. Laudeman has as good as made an agreement with Jockey Everett to ride for him in 1897.

The Lakeland Stable and other of the good establishments racing at St. Louis will soon be at Ideal Park.

Cella & Sippy expect to ship their Merry Glen Stable to Frisco in November. Tully Coulter's lot will go along with it.

The St. Louis meeting has been extended one week at the request of horsemen. Two of the daily purses have been reduced to $100.

Eugene Leigh has improved his commonsense portable stall appliances very much during the past season. The fixtures are now all metal and have been increased in strength and reduced in bulk.

The Jockey Club is going deeper into the matter which brought out action against Granman, Wallace, et al. As a result some eastern owners and bookmakers are likely to feel the official gad.

During the Eastern season now near its close favorites did only fairly well. At Morris Park in the spring 52 per cent of favorites won; at Brooklyn, spring, 50 per cent; Coney Island, summer, 47 per cent; Brooklyn, fall, 40 per cent; Aqueduct, fall, 57 per cent.
